

Don't think I'm talking randomly

కొన్ని సంభాషణలు చిత్రంగా మొదలై..
 విచిత్రంగా ముగుస్తాయి. కమల్,
 చరణ్ చర్చ కూడా అలాంటిదే! ఉపాధ్యాయుల
 సంగతుల దగ్గర మొదలైన ముచ్చట్లు...
 స్నేహితులను పలకరించి, సోదరుణ్ణి గుర్తు
 చేసుకొని, బామ్మ గారి గొప్పదనాన్ని వర్ణించి..
 మళ్ళీ టీచర్ల దగ్గరొచ్చి ఆగాయి.
 వీర్ధిల సంభాషణా చతురత మనకు
 ఈ వారం పాఠం...

Kamal: What we don't expect happens.

Charan: Life is like a dream!

ఇంగ్లీష్ మాట్లాడదాం

Kamal: Even teachers say wrong things, don't they?

Charan: It's a fashion with students now-a-days to find fault with teachers.

Kamal: Believe me! Our teacher said figures of speech instead of parts of speech.

Charan: So what?

Kamal: Every child knows there are parts of speech, but our teacher...

Charan: He said he would teach figures of speech, didn't he?

Kamal: Yes, exactly.

Charan: You have full freedom, don't you?

Kamal: Yes. I'm absolutely free.

Charan: You're as free as a bird.

Kamal: How well you have expressed it!

Charan: What do you like about your friend Suresh?

Kamal: He hates laziness. Keeps himself very busy always.

Charan: He's as busy as a bee.

Kamal: What an expression!

Charan: Do you drink warm water or cold water?

Kamal: I drink very cold water.

Charan: As cold as ice.

Kamal: You couldn't describe it better.

Charan: Please don't think I'm talking randomly.

Kamal: I know that whenever you speak, it's not without relevance.

Charan: Thank you. I hear that your brother is a good swimmer.

Kamal: You're right. He's a very good swimmer. He's learnt all types of swimming.

Charan: He swims like a fish.

Kamal: What a beautiful language you use!

Charan: How old is your grandma?

Kamal: She's ninety-three.

Charan: Still in good health.

REPUBLIC... PRE-PUBLIC

Suraj: We have exams in a week.

Kashyap: Quarterly? Half-yearly?

Suraj: No. Republic exams.

Kashyap: What's that?

Suraj: As a preparation for public exams.

Kashyap: You mean pre-public!

Kamal: Very strong and healthy. Eats well, walks well, and sleeps well.

Charan: She's as fit as a fiddle.

Kamal: What an ornamental language!

Charan: Well, what do you think of life?

Kamal: Full of joys and sorrows, fulfilment and disappointment.

Charan: What we imagine never takes shape.

Kamal: What we don't expect happens.

Charan: Life is like a dream!

Kamal: Oh, you're a master of language!

Charan: What you've appreciated in my language is the usage of similes.

Kamal: Simile? What's that?

Charan: A figure of speech. Saying something is like something else.

Kamal: So my teacher was not wrong!

Charan: Be ready to learn the figures of speech from your wise teacher.
